

ADVANCED HEALTH & SAFETY REPRESENTATIVE

Health & Safety Representative Training

Duration: 2 Days

Pre-Requisites: Literate

Target Group: Health and Safety Representatives and Committee Members.

Having competent Health and Safety Representative in establishing a system that provides compliance with local and international requirements competence is non-negotiable. The Representative should be competent to assist the Health and Safety Committee to achieve the goals and objectives set by the OHS Management System and OHS Act. Modern Representatives must be cognitively empowered to perform several risk control functions, as supervisors, representatives and committee members forms a solid defense against losses and injuries in the workplace.

The scope of this course is Unit Standard aligned and additionally include practices which focus on development of cognitive skills to ensure the health and safety of all business resources. Detailed health and safety principles will be addressed during this course, in order to achieve this goal.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

On completion of this course the learner will be able to define the safety practices, apply statutory requirements and perform there duties as Health and Safety Representatives to the highest standard.

COURSE MODULE FOCUS

On completion of the 2 Day Health and Safety Representative course learners will be equipped with the processes and techniques to evaluate the safety standards in the workplace and to act proactively in establishing control measures. The learner will further be able to define and describe and apply:

- Legal Requirements
- Duties of Employer and Employees
- Functions of the Representative and Committee
- Health and Safety Principles
- Risk Identification and assessment
- Occupational Health
- Inspection Requirements
- Communication and empowerment techniques.
- Incident Investigation

A FULL PRACTICAL COMPONENT IS INCLUDED IN THE 2 DAY ADVANCED TRAINING

CONTACT US

Address: Head Office

96 Marine Drive
Paarden Eiland
Cape Town

Tel: +27 64 549 5312

Website: www.bmsholdings.co.za

E-mail: info@bmsholdngs.co.za

